

This block converts analog input to consiquence of words and trying to detect start word there.
If it is detected, following consequence of words considers as the command, based on the context of which controll signals for out periphery are formed.

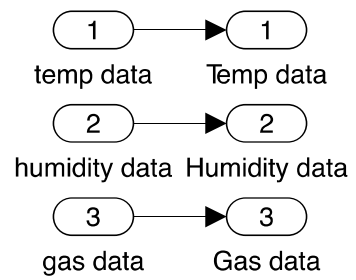

Controll signals

Data manager gathers and stores measurements from sensors for further using.

Realizes displaying current humidity, temp, time on the display.

There are two options of the getting music for playing:

1. Store some amount locally, just downloaded from the internet.
2. Spotify request each time for each song.

Specific realization is on the team member, who will realize this block.

Realizes playing of asked info by the User or playing of the music.

